

District of Columbia Office of the Chief Medical Examiner

Forensic Pathology Fellowship Training Program

The mission of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner (OCME) is to investigate all the deaths in the District of Columbia that occur as the result of violence (injury), as well as those that occur unexpectedly, without medical attention, in custody or pose a threat to public health.

Francisco J. Diaz, MD
Chief Medical Examiner

In Association With:

Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education

- Comprehensive Caseload
- 24/7 Medicolegal Death Investigators (ABMDI Board Certified)
- Research Opportunities
- Board Preparation
- In-house Lodox Scanner
- Toxicology Rotation at In-house Laboratory
- Forensic Anthropology Rotation with ABFA certified Anthropologist
- Regular Neuropathology Conferences
- Cardiac Pathology Rotation
- Investigations and Forensic Photography Rotation
- Firearms and Vehicle Reconstruction Rotation
- Moot Court Rotation
- Multiple Fatality Review Teams

National Association of Medical Examiners Accredited

American
Board of Forensic
Toxicology
Accredited

ISO
17020
Accredited

Website:
OCME.DC.GOV

For More Information, Please Contact:

Kristinza W. Giese, MD
Medical Examiner,
Fellowship Director
kristinza.giese@dc.gov

