

Are you koala-fied?

NSW Health Pathology's Forensic Medicine service is looking for forensic pathologists to join our growing medical workforce.

You'll be rewarded with a guaranteed minimum salary of $293,195 AUD p.a. (dependent on experience), $35,000 AUD p.a. professional development allowance, 25 days annual and 25 days professional development leave, and the opportunity to work in our brand new state-of-the-art facility in the heart of Sydney.

This is your chance to live and work in one of the world's most liveable cities, with Sydney's famous beaches just a stone's throw away, and metro and regional career prospects.

Take the next step in your forensic pathology career.

Get in touch with our Chief Forensic Pathologist, Dr Isabel Brouwer (isabel.brouwer@health.nsw.gov.au) for more information
