Volusia County's District Seven Medical Examiner's Office is seeking an Associate Medical Examiner

Salary: $230,000 – $270,000 (based on experience)
Open until filled

Volusia County has a population of 520,000 with just over 7,000 deaths per year. Pursuant to Chapter 406, the Medical Examiner's Office performs approximately 580 autopsies and 200 inspections in addition to 5,700 cremation authorizations per year.

The District Seven Medical Examiner's Office was recently reorganized into an independent agency with the Chief Medical Examiner functioning as an independent contractor. The Office funding supports the salary and benefits of the Chief Medical Examiner, two Associate Medical Examiners, and a support staff of administrative professionals, investigators, and technicians. The benefits include a 401k retirement plan with employer match, paid time off, and health, vision, dental, disability, life, workers compensation, professional liability, and unemployment insurances. Additional income is available for expert witness fees in civil and criminal cases. The District Seven Medical Examiner's Office has funded support services for Toxicology (NMS), histology, forensic odontology, forensic anthropology, and neuropathology.

The current facility at 1360 Indian Lake Road in Daytona Beach includes an administration center and a morgue operations building. Funding has been secured for a state-of-the-art new Medical Examiner facility within the next five years.
