

KING COUNTY SEATTLE, WA

Forensic Pathology Fellowship

- Jurisdictional environments including urban, rural, remote, wilderness, marine, mountainous, and Level 1 trauma center
- Weekly didactic teaching conferences at an academic standard to award Category I CME
- Daily case reviews attended by all staff pathologists, fellows, rotating students, and residents
- Opportunities for away rotations in nearby smaller ME jurisdictions
- Opportunity to participate in an innovative Real-Time Drug Overdose Surveillance project
- Opportunity to teach rotating residents and medical students
- Rotation with The Washington State Patrol Crime and Toxicology labs
- Neuropathology conferences with on-site forensically trained neuropathologists
- Interactions with over 30 local law enforcement agencies, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, and Public Health — Seattle & King County
- In-house state Forensic Anthropologist
- A fellow office with a window
- Office pets!

Currently accepting applications for AY2027-2028

KCMEO will participate in the NRMP Match

Full medical,
dental, vision, life
and disability insurance, and retirement benefits

Free ORCA public transportation pass

CONTACT:

Amanda Maskovyak, MD

Fellowship Program Director

amaskovyak@kingcounty.gov